

To my brothers and sisters of R.E.C. 4-24-10

My name is Brother Lopez, My purpose for this letter is to Thank You for these enjoyable three Days, I know alot of brothers enjoyed it just as much as I did, but I also want you to know I learned from it, its strange how were all locked in here its like our own little world, and still there is people we have not met, But I want you to know that R.E.C. has allowed me to meet more brothers, This time that I'm Doing is my biggest adventure, Many say were here because were failures, but if you ask me this is just a lesson, Some of us need it, People like me, I grew up in a Rough Neighborhood, where evil is always present, to be in prison is almost our Destiny if you come from where I'm From, now here I am, My time has come, I know you all probably hear alot of prison stories, Well I can relate to some, but please let me tell you, My change of heart came when I was on lock Down, in Special Housing, I was caught up in a Riot, Where alot of people got stab, it was in 2009, I'm affilated, as in a gang-member, So far me there is no going back, Well after the War was over, they locked all my people in Special Housing, We was in there almost a whole year, I spent all the Holidays in there, Trust me its a ugly feeling, No phone, no visit, no commissary, Shower only three days out of the week, but one-day I was layin on my bunk, Thinking of all the Bad I've done, but also I was thinking of my family, So I started really thinking is this who I am, is this how I want to live, Thats when I told myself I need Jesus in my life, Well months later I got transfer, Till I Finally reached my Destination, Now here I am at Lexington Kyo better known as F.M.C. Well As soon As I got here they put me right back in Special Housing, S.I.S. had me under investigation to see if I was allowed in population, that was the first time I prayed, I asked God to get me out, To give me a little freedom, Well next day my prayer got answered, Well I hung around alone at first, till one of the brothers got here, We started talking about God, So he asked me what religion are you, I told him I think catholic, both my parents are catholic, Well a strange thing happened to me I went to catholic services and they were cancel, So I told my friend, Then he told me try christian, and tell me what you think, Well let me tell you as soon as I got there, I felt peace, Well now I attend christian service, I put the past all behind me, So that's why I want it to Thank You, For believing in me, that I can change, I guess the lord sent me here for a reason, So Thank You Brothers and Sisters, you have thought me to open my mind up, Well you all Take good care May the man above be with you.

Thank You
your brother
